BLUSTERINGS FROM BUFORD.

LAYING OF THE MISSOURI RIVER CABLE.

The Job Successfully Completed and Lieut. Grimes Now on His Way to Bismarck—Officers on Their Way East—Indian Movements—The Hodge of Black Fox.

[Special Dispatch to The Tribune.]

STEAMBOAT ARRIVALS.

Fort Buford, D. T., May 2.—Steamer Batchelor arrived here at 2 P. M. yesterday. She reports low water and uncertain channels. The Red Cloud arrived at 2:20 yesterday. The latter left for Benton at 3 P. M. The Yellowstone river is reported as rising slightly, caused by the melting of snow and heavy rains in the mountains.

THE MISSOURI CABLE.

Lieut. Grimes today laid the cable across the Missouri at a point near the old ferry landing. The steamer Batchelor acted the part of the Great Eastern in this exploit. The work was a complete success. As soon as the cable was laid the ends were united with the shore wires, and Keogh and Custer once more shook hands with Bismarck. The event created considerable excitement here, and the success of Lieut. Grimes is highly praised. He leaves for Bismarck tonight on the Batchelor, which will carry quite a number of officers as passengers from this port.

ON THEIR WAY EAST.

Capt. Penny, quartermaster, and Adjutant Groesbeck will leave to attend the Stanley-Hazen court-martial, and Capt. Powell will report to the Leavenworth returning board. Dr. Skinner, who has not yet completely recovered from a wound accidentally received while killing agency cattle recently, and Dr. Birmingham, are among the passengers from Bismarck.

THE INDIANS.

There is nothing startling regarding the red-skins, but trouble is expected in building the new post on Milk river. A runner just in from Sitting Bull's camp says that owing to a scarcity of buffalo the Indians are becoming restless, and the young bucks are particularly anxious to roam about. Black Fox, the Indian who created so much excitement at Yankton Agency, and caused the calling of several cabinet councils, is back to Wood Mountain again. It seems that it was only an Indian trick to get his wife and children away from the agency. He represented himself as a representative of Sitting Bull, and wanted to find out on what terms he could come back. He now laughs at the Government. Sitting Bull has camped most of the time during the winter on American soil, near Frenchman's creek. Any movement of troops will be known at the head camp immediately, as Indian pickets are stationed at Poplar River, Wolf Point, and various other places. Gen. Bull has learned the art of American warfare and is acting accordingly.

DON'T LIKE IT.

The President's order removing settlers from the Indian reservation creates considerable dissatisfaction among the "old timers," who say they have as much right to the soil as the Indian.

[Special Correspondence of The Tribune.]

THE EIGHTEENTH.

Fort Buford, D. T., April 24.—This lone spot in the wilderness has been for the past few days quite a scene of animation and life, on account of the arrival of the 18th regiment from the sunny South. The Gen. Sherman, the first of the fleet, arrived on the 23d inst., at 8:30 P. M. The Josephine arrived next morning at about 7 A. M. The Key West, with headquarters on board, arrived here today at 7:30 A. M. After taking necessary stores they left this afternoon at 2 P. M. for their destination. The 18th are a very fine looking body of men, but look somewhat the worse by their long term of service in a warm climate, when compared with our "pick and shovel brigade," who laugh at the hardships of a Dakota winter and constant work. The companies of the above regiment are very small, and will scarcely average thirty men to the company. Our officers gave the 18th and their ladies a hop last night.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Our local matters are at a standstill, with the exception of a week's heavy rain. It is expected that several officers will soon leave for New York, as witnesses before the Stanley-Hazen trial, namely, Capt. Penny, commissary officer, and Lieut. Groesbeck, post adjutant, the former to be replaced by Lieut. Walker, and the latter by Lieut. Jacob, both pro tem. We have largely added to our garden space this year, and the ploughing and fencing is being pushed forward with energy by Lieut. Jacob, one of the most energetic officers in the garrison, assisted by Sergeant Mordrek and a large fatigue party.

It is reported that Lieut. A. L. Wagner is about to be transferred to the 2d Cavalry.

BAIT PLATO.

HAYES' ORDER.

All Settlers Must Leave the Indian Reservation.

Whereas, it has become known to me that certain evil-disposed persons have, within the territory and jurisdiction of the United States, begun and set on foot preparations of an organized and forcible possession of and settlement upon the lands of what is known as the Indian Territory, west of the State of Arkansas, which territory is designated, recognized and described by the treaties and laws of the United States, and by the executive authorities, as Indian country, and as such is only subject to occupation by Indian tribes, officers of the Indian department, military posts, and such persons as may be privileged to reside and trade therein under the intercourse laws of the United States.

And, whereas, those laws provide for the removal of all persons residing and trading therein without express permission of the Indian department and agents, and also of all persons whom such agents may deem to be improper persons to reside in the Indian country.

Now, therefore, for the purpose of properly protecting the interests of the Indian nations and tribes, as well as of the United States in said Indian Territory, and of duly enforcing the laws governing the same, I, Rutherford B. Hayes, President of the United States, do admonish and warn all such persons so intending or preparing to remove upon said lands or into said territory, without permission of the proper agent of the Indian department, against any attempt to so remove and settle upon any of the lands of said territory; and I do further warn and notify any and all such persons who may so offend that they will be speedily and immediately removed therefrom by the agent, according to the laws made and provided, and, if necessary, the aid and assistance of the military forces of the United States will be invoked to carry into proper execution the laws of the United States herein referred to.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington, this 26th day of April, in the year of our Lord 1879, and of the independence of the United States one hundred and third.

RUTHERFORD B. HAYES.

By the President:

WM. M. EVARTS, Secretary of State.

"Chewed Up and Spit Out."

(Western Enterprise.)

At an early hour last evening, as a member of the late Legislature was sipping his beverage in the office saloon, Deadwood, he was approached by an irate creditor, who demanded that he liquidate certain bills which he had contracted at his saloon. The representative from Bismarck looked upon the collector with supreme disdain, and asked the dispenser of the festive cocktail what country he came from that could produce men with sufficient audacity to ask a representative of the people of Dakota Territory to pay a "filthy liquor bill." At this point the conversation became exceedingly lively, and words were used that would, according to orthodox notions, insure a man's passage to that place where thermometers have to be examined with a step-ladder. The honorable gentleman from Bismarck used some very bad language toward the glass creditor, and then came the tug of war, and after considerable heavy firing all along the line, the intelligent maker of laws for the voters of Dakota emerged from the fracas looking as though he had been chewed up and spit out.

The Turf.

There was a very exciting horse race at Fort Lincoln, Sunday. It was a running race for one mile, straight track, between Mr. Killfoil's sorrel horse "Snapper" and Geo. W. Duvy's light bay "Dandy," for a purse of $500, the former winning by at least six lengths. There was a large assemblage at the track, several ladies being present. Betting was very free, "Dandy" being the favorite. About fifteen or sixteen hundred dollars changed hands. The riders were Mr. Hackett for "Snapper" and Mr. Andrews for "Dandy," both excellent riders. The riders' colors were for "Snapper" a black jacket and white pants; for "Dandy," gray jacket and white pants. The owners of the horses are contemplating having another race in about a month, over the same track, for a much larger purse.

Freight Rates.

The Northern Pacific Railroad has established the following freight rates: From St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth to Fort Peck, $1.05 per 100 pounds; Carroll, $1.35; Cow Island, $1.35; Benton, $1.30; Miles City, $2; Fort Keogh, $2; Mouth of Big Horn, $2.50; Terry's Landing, $2.50; Fort Custer, $2.75, taking effect on the first instant, and good during the season of navigation, subject to changes after July 1. Goods shipped by the Baker Line or Power Line will be taken at these rates.

REGULAR RIVER RAMBLINGS.

ITEMS GATHERED FROM UP AND DOWN THE RIVER.

The Col. Macleod the First Boat to Arrive at Benton—Several Hundred Dollars Will Change Hands in Consequence—Arrivals and Departures—Notes.

FIRST BOAT AT BENTON.

Fort Benton, M. T., April 27.—The Col. Macleod arrived here at 6:10 P. M. It is the first boat of the season, and is the earliest arrival ever made. This sterner was the last boat leaving Benton last fall. She left Oct. 21st.

ALONG THE BANKS.

The steamer Montana, the biggest and finest boat that ever saw the Upper Missouri, will be at Bismarck landing Tuesday. The whole town should turn out and see this "Great Eastern" of the Western waters.

The Helena, which left here Tuesday morning, had on seventy-five passengers and 220 tons of freight for Montana. She also had sixty-five tons of freight for Fort Peck and Berthold.

The Denver is making good trips between the landing and Mandan. Her second morning yesterday carried as many wagons and buggies as could be crowded upon her.

Capt. Johnny Barr, who left for Sioux City last Tuesday to start the next Benton line boat for Benton, will be back next week. The boat will arrive here about the 11th.

Weaver & Co. contemplate taking and running the ways for one-third of the profits. That's their proposition, and the ways people had better accept.

The steamer Batchelor, which left here Sunday for the north, having laid the Missouri cable at Fort Benton, is now on her way down.

The Batchelor will probably load for Fort Keogh next week. Her captain, Grant Marsh, is the father of Yellowstone navigation.

The steamer Yellowstone, I. W. Jacobs commanding, left St. Louis Monday for this city and the Yellowstone river.

The Far West arrived Wednesday morning from Yankton, and passed on up the river.

The Col. Macleod arrived at Benton on the 27th ult.—the first boat at that point this season.

Steamer Benton, from above, is expected here on her way to Sioux City about next Monday.

The Eclipse will be back next week, and will probably go up the Yellowstone next trip.

The Macleod leaves for Benton next Monday, April 5th.

Business at Sioux City and Yankton brisk.

Water is still low in the Yellowstone.

Water at this point very low.

Ansley Gray's Troubles.

Ansley Gray will not be here to appear as a contestant for McBride's claim. His life in the Black Hills is making return impossible. He went to Deadwood upon the request of a lawyer, who wrote him that he carried a certain court of the Hills in his hip pocket, and that they could carry everything before them in that parlor of justice, law and equity. Gray, however, panned out so poorly that the Deadwood lawyer kicked back and wouldn't take him in. The Deadwood man had got the idea that Gray was a tremendous fellow. When he had secured him he found he was something else. This issue seems to have broken Gray's heart, and he now threatens the publication of the lawyer's confidential communication. Meantime Gray has been whipped, thrown out of a saloon, and kicked twice while taking breath on the sidewalk. The last kick laid open his cheek. This little affair has been a sweet morsel for the papers. J. H. Gray, an ex-stager man in the Hills, writes to the Times that "it was the other Gray" who was chewed up and spit out of a saloon. He appears to be a better man than Ansley, the lawyer.

Tough on Both.

The first mosquito of the season wandered into THE TRIBUNE office last Wednesday, and after whetting his bill on the imposing stone, tackled one of the "comps." He struggled two hours and ten minutes in his vain endeavor to obtain juice, and then courted favor with the "devil." After filling himself with a pint of printers' ink and two gills of concentrated life, he left for the river to warn his comrades, but seeing the managing editor, lit upon his cheek and perished. A warning to other intruders.

Who Wouldn't Go?

It is understood that arrangements have been perfected whereby round-trip excursion tickets on the Northern Pacific and the various lines of steamers running above Bismarck to Fort Benton, from Duluth, Minneapolis or St. Paul, will be sold for $80. They will be good until the 1st of October. Each passenger will be entitled to 100 pounds of baggage and meals and berth on steamers. The distance will be about 2,800 miles, and the scenery on the Upper Missouri is well worth the trip.

STANDING ROCK.

The reception given Gen. Sheridan and Cary Wilson.

Gen. Sheridan, Gen. Terry and Cary Wilson arrived at Standing Rock Saturday evening about half past seven. The military in full uniform received the Generals with cannonading and other marks of respect. They were driven from the landing to the post in Major Merrill's carriage. Upon the parade ground there was an inspection of a half hour. Sheridan was very much pleased with the discipline and general appearance of the troops and post. About midnight the Generals retired to the steamer which cleared at daylight for Fort Bennett.

Gen. Sheridan weighed the family before he left home and found the twins within half a pound of each other. They are the boss twins. Sheridan himself weighs 165 pounds.

Post Trader Douglas is putting up a nice house.

Major Merrill is very popular as a commanding officer.

The cook of company B, seventh cavalry, walked 5 miles in 51 minutes. His course was an eighth of a mile in the shape of a square. The last time 'round he tripped it in eighty seconds. The time was one of the best on record.

A base ball match between soldiers and officers resulted in a victory for the latter. Score thirty to twenty-seven.

Mr. VanSolen, engineer of the post, was married last Sunday to Mrs. DeGrey.

Lieut. Kislinsky is at Fort Lincoln sick.

There are six companies of cavalry and infantry here. There is nothing official as to their movements this summer.

They have not commenced building the new quarters yet.

The post garden has been doubled in size.

"HEAP BAD GUN."

A Ree's Experience with a White Man's Rifle.

A. H. Gerard, a Montana hunter and trapper, reports a rather lively seance with a Ree Indian, Thursday night. Gerard came ashore about six miles above Bismarck to cook his supper, leaving his Winchester rifle in his skiff. In a few minutes he heard a report, a yell, and the exclamation, "A heap bad!" and running to the boat he found a felonious Ree back rolling on the grass and cursing the God who made him.

The savage had attempted to steal the gun, grabbing it by the muzzle, when Divine Providence gave an extra jerk at the trigger, causing the gun to go off. The ball entered the red-skin's knee, and ranging upward to the thigh, inflicted what Mr. Gerard thinks to be a mortal wound. The Ree had a squaw with him, who gave the plausible excuse that they thought no one owned the gun. She called four bucks and three squaws from their camp in the neighborhood, and the outfit straightway entered upon the manufacture of medicine.

More Emigrants.

(Sioux Falls Independent.)

C. K. Howard has within the past few days sold thirty yoke of work oxen to McNider, McLean & Galloway, for use on the Bismarck and Black Hills freight line. The cattle were shipped last Monday. It is something of a feather in Sioux Falls' cap, that she has been called upon to supply cattle for both the chief routes from the Missouri to the Black Hills. Some weeks ago the Withers got several yoke for the Fort Pierre route, and now the Bismarck route has called upon us. Charlie Howard filled both orders.

Mining Matters.

(Western Enterprise.)

Activity in mining matters all through the Hills is on the increase, and our prospects never looked in better shape. The yield of our bonanza mines is increasing in richness every day, and in a short time we may look for something startling in the way of developments.

Put 's O's.

The Missouri river valley is the best potato raising country in the world. One hundred and fifty bushels to the acre are raised without any trouble, and there is always a market for them at from eighty cents to $1 per bushel. Come West, young man, and grow potatoes.

Death of Gen. Sully.

Gen. Sully, Colonel of the Twenty-first Infantry, is dead. He entered the army in 1841, and was a true old hero. His death promotes Lieut. Col. Morrow of the Thirtieth to the colonelcy of the Twenty-first, and Major Crofton of the 17th to Morrow's place.

Baker a Major.

Major Joseph A. Potter, of the Quartermaster's Department, has been placed upon the retired list. This retirement promotes our Quartermaster, E. D. Baker, to Major. Baker has been the ranking captain of that department.

BOLD BREAK TO SEE BULLY BULL

AN EXCURSION PARTY ABOUT TO VISIT THE OLD MAN.

A Mistaken Idea in the East that Sitting Bull is Dangerous—The Venturesome Dr. Burleigh to Superintend the Scheme—Room for a few More Passengers.

A GRAND EXCURSION.

There is a scheme on foot that will attract universal notice. It is nothing more or less than an excursion up the Missouri to the landing of the new post, Fort Assinaboine, and an overland jaunt of ninety miles to Woody Mountain Post and Sitting Bull's camp. The excursion originated with Dr. Burleigh, who had projected a more elaborate affair up the Yellowstone to the National Park. The latter covered too much land travel, and was too expensive. The later idea is practicable and is accompanied by a more reasonable layout. The novelty is equally great. Upon its face a trip to might look sensational and a little dangerous. Western people, however, know there is no danger, and the announcement of the excursion in this section will only be looked upon as a neat bit of enterprise. The round trip will not necessarily consume more than four weeks. The posts on the Missouri and the grand scenery that comes in view above the mouth of the Yellowstone are sufficient compensation in themselves. The new post, Assinaboine, and Gen. Ruger's far northern garrison will be full of interest to the excursionists.

SITTING BULL'S BIVOUAC.

MILITARY LIFE ON THE FRONTIER.

will be found there in all its completeness. To Sitting Bull's camp the party will be carried in ambulances and wagons, via Major Walsh's post, Woody Mountain. Gen. Ruger will detail a guard to accompany the party. The country passed over is very beautiful, and is the only real wild Indian country left in the United States. There will be no trouble in reaching and having an exceptionally good opportunity to see genuine savage life as exemplified in the home of the most noted Indian warrior living. At a glance it will be seen the trip will be full of strange interest.

SITTING BULL'S CAMP.

Dr. Burleigh is now up the river with the intention of making the necessary arrangements at that end of the route. It is expected that F. J. Haynes, the photographer of Fargo; W. A. Rogers, the Harper's Weekly artist, who visited Bismarck last fall, and Col. Donan, the Southern editor, will accompany the expedition as invited guests. Haynes will take photographs of Sitting Bull and his prominent chiefs for sale throughout the country. Rogers will make sketches for Harper's, and Donan will make a brief report for the Associated Press, to be sent from Buford, the nearest telegraph station, and several long letters embodying the best work of his wonderful descriptive powers.

Montana's Mines.

(Bozeman Avant Courier.)

It now transpires that the rich specimen of gold-bearing quartz brought in from Bear Gulch, and of which mention was made in the Courier of last week, was from the "outcroppings" of what promises to be a rich lead recently discovered by a German by the name of Frank Kennis, who has been prospecting in that locality for several months past. This is the second rich strike that has been made in Bear during the past year, and both appear to be of sufficient importance to warrant the belief that ere long Bear Gulch is destined to be one of the richest quartz camps in the Territory. Several practical miners from Butte and other camps of the Territory arrived in Bozeman recently, and being joined by quite a number of Bozemanites, left for Bear and Crevice Gulches this week. It is reported that good mines, both quartz and placer, have recently been discovered at Crevice Gulch.

We have no desire or intention of precipitating a stampede in this direction by giving the above information. The gulches referred to are well up on the Yellowstone, are quite difficult to reach early in the season, and in any event there is always more or less uncertainty in regard to the community immediately on any new discovery being made. Parties contemplating coming this way for prospecting or mining purposes had better wait for future developments and, perhaps, more reliable data.

Marble's Meanderings.

(Sidney Telegraph.)

A Wooster Excursion Car Company outfit of excursionists passed westward Thursday morning. To say the ladies were the homeliest set of wind splitters we ever saw, and the gentlemen the most refined class of idiots the Union Pacific road ever hauled, would fall in expressing the fact. But then, people who have money can travel anyway.

Large Contract.

Herman Clark, of the Northern Pacific contractors, has got the contract for putting down another track on the Erie railroad.

Excessive Brain Work.

One of the clergymen of Worcester, Mass., in the course of a sermon recently, uttered the following cautionary suggestions in regard to immoderate brain work:

"It is a lesson that we are slow to learn—one that has to be enforced by an occasional thrilling fact—that the most robust physique has its limit of exertion; that well-compacted and toughened mental fiber may succumb to undue stress at a single point. A piece of steel wire can bear only a given amount of longitudinal tension. Beyond that limit it snaps. By the annealing process of intense study or application to exacting business a man's brain gets toughened. It can bear an immense, prolonged strain, but there is an unknown terminus of your powers; exceed that point and the subtle thread of reason snaps. A ruptured capillary on the brain paralyzes that center of thought, and the stalwart, brilliant man of yesterday, full of hope, projecting grand schemes, the pillar of strength to his family, the pride of many, the possible envy of more, is to-day an enfeebled or quite broken-down victim of immoderate brain work. You might charge me with an exaggerated idea of the perils of over-exertion among business men, did not facts justify all I have suggested. Have we not seen some of the brightest stars in the cluster of enterprising citizens, of which we are justly proud, wander from their orbit of reason and pass, unless God shall disappoint our fears, into the shadow of permanent mental eclipse? The saddest feature of this phenomenon is that it seems to fall upon the highly organized, generous, sympathetic natures first. A cold-blooded, grasping Shylock, who cares little for the good name so highly prized by another, appears to be in no danger of such a calamity. Better far to confess poverty, be an honest bankrupt, than to be broken down in body or mind under too great an exertion to avoid such a calamity. With emotions of unspeakable pity for every man harassed by his unsatisfactory affairs, I turn to expostulate with the coming generation. Keep a sound mind in a sound body. Do be contented with 'things honest,' with comfortable mediocrity. Husband the stock of physical and mental life God has given you, that you may not grow prematurely old—useless before your time."

E Pluribus Unum.

Mr. A. Louden Snowden, of Philadelphia, thus describes the origin and use of the motto E Pluribus Unum: "It is ascribed to Col. Reed, of Uxbridge, Mass. It first appeared on a copper coin struck at Newburg, N. Y., where there was a private mint. The pieces struck are dated 1786. In 1787 the motto appeared on several types of the New Jersey coppers; also on a very curious gold doubloon, or $16 piece, coined by a goldsmith named Brasher. It was there put 'Unum E Pluribus.' Only four of these pieces are known to be extant, and they are very valuable. One of them, in possession of the Mint, is supposed to be worth over $1,000. When Kentucky was admitted, in 1791, it is said copper coins were struck with 'E Pluribus Unum.' They were made in England. The act of Congress of 1792, authorizing the establishment of a mint, and the coinage of gold, silver and copper, did not prescribe this motto, nor was it ever legalized. It was placed on gold coins in 1796, and on silver coins in 1798. It was constantly used thereafter until 1831, when it was withdrawn from the quarter-dollar of new device. In 1834 it was dropped from gold coins to mark the coinage in the standard fineness of the gold. In 1837 it was dropped from the silver coins, marking the era of the revised Mint Code. It has been thought proper to restore it recently to our new silver dollar, without any sanction of law, although the expression is one very proper for our coin."

The Bedouins of America.

The Apaches, who have given us so much trouble—though not near so much, probably, as we have given them—still claim to number, with all their tribes, from 8,000 to 10,000. When the Spaniards, in their search for gold in the high lands of what is now New Mexico, first met these Indians they found them proud and independent, though harmless and even kindly. Wronged and outraged, the Apaches at last retaliated, and the Spaniards were never able to conquer them. To this day they hurl defiance at all government and civilization. They are the Bedouins of this continent, and are all mounted on small ponies capable of great endurance. These savages, fierce and untamed as they are, do not scalp their enemies. They are fond of smoking and of cards, and when idle have a strange, monotonous chant. In battle they keep their ponies in motion, and are themselves always changing position. They seem to be Monotheists, and Montezuma, or the spirit of God, is blended in their mind with some sort of religious aspiration. They have a superstitious regard for the eagle and owl, and will not kill or eat the bear or the hog. Rattlesnakes they dread, imagining them to be evil spirits. They never cultivate the soil; live principally by plunder, and are in the main ill-formed, emaciated, and miserable in appearance.

Froth.

In all cities there are three grades of people, the substratum, the substance, and the froth. The substratum are the vicious poor who hide in dark alleys. The substance are the mechanical and commercial industries. And on top of these floats the worthless, fashionable froth.—Des Moines Register.

SOME men never lose their presence of mind. In New York a man threw his mother-in-law out of a window in the fifth story of a burning building, and carried a feather bed down stairs in his arms.

A WETZEL COUNTY man went into a Wheeling restaurant, the other day, and asked for a dozen oysters. The polite waiter asked him how he would like them dressed. "Dressed," exclaimed the fellow; "hang it, I don't want 'em dressed at all. I want 'em naked, and don't you forget it." This was a nude departure in the oyster trade.—Wheeling Leader.

PRIMEVAL paragraphs were philosophers, as are those of to-day. Diogenes was one of them. The best pun he ever perpetrated was "Tub he, or not tub he." The only difference between Diogenes and a modern philosopher is, Diogenes went about the streets carrying a lantern in daylight looking for a man, while the latter goes out after twilight to "see a man."

PRACTICAL repudiation has taken a peculiar and summary form in the bankrupt city of Memphis, Tenn., which has virtually abrogated its municipal charter, and whose Mayor and other principal officers have resigned their positions. As a city corporation Memphis is a magnificent failure.

ACCORDING to the statistics of 1870 there were 9,749,833 acres of timbered land in Ohio. In 1877 there were but 5,117,310 acres. If these figures are correct they show the destruction of over 4,500,000 acres of timbered land in Ohio in seven years. Gov. Bishop calls attention to the matter and counsels a halt.

The rents have not yet been raised.

He is very dissatisfied with the insignificant part played by his fleet during the recent war, especially with the iron-clads, for which he has acquired a deep aversion. THE Russian physicians report the following as the characteristics of the prevailing plague: A swelling of the size of a hen's egg appears under the groin. This is accompanied by a general indisposition and violent headaches. From these signs of the disease to its complete development only a few hours elapse. In an hour or two more the patient is dead.

DON'T STOP MY PAPER.

Don't stop my paper, printer; Don't strike my name off yet; You know the times are stringent, And money hard to get; But tug a little harder Is what I mean to do, And scribble the dimes together, Enough for me and you.

I can't afford to drop it; I find it doesn't pay To do without a paper, However others may. I hate to ask my neighbors To give me theirs on loan; They don't just say, but mean Why don't you have your own?

You can't tell how we'd miss it, If it, by any fate, Should happen not to reach us Or come a little late; Then all is in a hubbub, And things go all awry, And, printer, if you're married, You know the reason why.

I cannot do without it, It is up use to try, For other people take it, And, printer, so must I, I, too, must keep me posted, And know what is going on, Or feel, and be accounted A foggy simpleton. Then take it kindly, printer, If pay be somewhat slow, For cash is not so plenty, And wants not few, you know. But I must have my paper, Cost what it may to me, I'd rather dock my sugar, And do without my tea.

So, printer, don't you stop it, Unless you want my frown, For such a thing as subscription, And credit right down, And send the paper promptly And regularly on, And let it bring us weekly Its welcomed benison.

English and American Locomotives.

The Englishman seems never to be able to escape the influence of his surroundings. Though he occupies a part of every continent, his methods are seldom continental. This is aptly illustrated in his railroad building. His island is small and densely populated, his roads short, and the traffic heavy. Naturally the roads are of the best. Every valley is spanned by viaducts or bridges, every hill pierced with deep cuts or costly tunnels. The early railroad men had an impression that a railroad must be as nearly straight as possible, and as level as labor and money could make it. Later English builders followed these ideas closely, and the final result is magnificent in every sense. The roads are the best known, and make fit ways for the splendid engines designed to run upon them. But all this is insular. When the Englishman tried continental railroading, as in Canada and in Australia, he built on insular plans, and the result has not been wholly happy.

It is to the American we must turn to learn what are the requirements of the modern railway, and to get some suggestion of its future. More than this, the moment the English locomotive is taken from its island line it exhibits defects and a certain want of pliability that completely unfit it for a continental railway. But, if the English road and the English engine are the best in the world, why are they not the best for the world? Simply because they do not pay. There can be no higher reason than this. Anything that does not pay is useless, because it does not meet a human want. The excuse of the railroad and its train is that it moves men and things cheaply. The cost of any operation is the measure of its value to human beings, and, if the road does not pay, of what good is it? Now a railway, to be cheap, must follow the face of the country. That is, the line must go up and down hill, pass around abrupt curves, according to the lay of the land, and without much attempt at a straight line or level bed. It is upon this idea that American railroads have been built, and all continental lines are likely to be built in the future. If a railroad can thus follow the face of the country, it will not cost so much, there being no high bridges, deep cuts and tunnels. Of course there is a limit in this direction, and even the American engine cannot climb up the side of a house, or turn a right angle in its own length; but within certain broad limits it may be said that the future locomotive must follow lines that run up hill and down dale, and get round very remarkable corners.

This being the case, what of the English locomotive? Can it travel in safety over crooked lines that wander in astonishing freedom over hill and dale through all the sinuous lines of a winding river valley? There is no need to say it ought, or it may, for it never did. It has been tried again and again, and the end of all is, the engine is in the ditch, and the unhappy stockholders are clamoring for American engines, or at least engines built on American plans.—Charles Barnard, in Harper's Magazine for March.

Substitutes for Liquor.

A curious feature of the operation of the No-Licence law at Norwich, Ct., is the substitution by drinkers of other stimulants in place of liquors. Perhaps the most natural substitute of all is Jamaica ginger. This extract has about double the alcoholic strength of whisky, and, as it is a medicine in constant demand, and kept by all druggists, it makes a very satisfactory substitute for the habitual old toper who is bound to get drunk on something. That it is used in this way to a considerable extent is shown from the increased sale of the drug, as well as the confession of the user. One dealer estimates his sales of Jamaica ginger since the 1st of November as fully three times as great as they were before; another sells perhaps a third more now than before that date; and another has noticed but a small increase not over 5 per cent.; while a fourth estimates the calls upon him as five times as large now as they were up to Nov. 1. It is also said that the sale of paregoric has slightly increased in some cases.—Boston Journal.

BISMARCK, SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1879.

Why not Logan for the Presidency and Lowe for the second place? They appear to agree as well as Tilden and Hendricks ever did.

AFTER dispassionately considering the great Congressional duel question, we have unanimously decided that Senator Logan is in the right.

Will some posted gentleman kindly furnish THE TRIBUNE with the name of the arizan who furnished President Hayes' recent display of back-bone?

DAKOTA had better build an insane hospital. The Territory paid Minnesota $1,305 for keeping "lunies" at the St. Peter hospital up to October last.

The Southern Dakota papers are stirring up Secretary Hand as a member of the Yankton printing ring. Hand supplies the Press and Dakotan with the funds necessary to keep the Gun-Wad alive.

A special election will be held June 10, to vote upon the proposition to issue bonds in the sum of $20,000 for the purpose of building a court-house and jail. See notice and bill published elsewhere.

In an interview with George Alfred Townsend, Inspector General George P. Fric is represented as saying that "Grant ought to have been a judge." Which ocular utterance will probably be promptly endorsed by a vast variety of whisky manufacturers.

In vetoing the army bill the President virtually declared that the Republicans are in the minority, and that Federal bayonets must be employed to deter Democrats from voting. In other words, the commander-in-chief of the army proposes to take the field against the majority.

It is estimated that every speech made in Congress costs the people about $5,000. A trial and an execution costs a county about $2,000. Now, if each prospective member of Congress would kill the constituent who nominates him, one-half the expense of the Government would be saved, and flush times would prevail once more. Let's try it.

WEDNESDAY evening the family of Capt Poland, of the Sixth Infantry, left for the East. During the Captain's absence, Major Sanger, of the Seventeenth Infantry, was in command of the upper post at Fort Lincoln, and though holding the position of commandant for a short time, he has made a variety of improvements that will be felt and appreciated for some time to come.

The people of Bismarck will rejoice to learn that Major Jack Carland, of the Sixth Infantry, has sworn a horrible oath not to visit the city for a year. This generous abstinence on the part of the Major has been brought about by his literary engagements, which have suffered considerably from his neglect during the past six months. He is now engaged in revising the Bible.

ANOTHER "Black Hills agitator" has turned up again in the "agitation" business. Col. C. C. Carpenter, who is still remembered in Southwestern Dakota for the peculiarities of his charges upon that section of the country, is organizing a filibustering scheme for the Indian Nation. He is enlisting an army of unfortunates in St. Louis, and it only remains for Congress to pass some measure appropriating his outfit.

THE TRIBUNE is in receipt of a Fort Stevenson letter, penned by some one much grieved, highly embarrassed, and severely threatened by the populace of that usually quiet post, who mistake him to be the "triple" correspondent of THE TRIBUNE. He has even been warned against showing himself alone after dark, and received a note stating that if he is ever found on the river bottom after that time he will be summarily hung to a cottonwood tree. THE TRIBUNE never goes back on its record, and if it can do anything to expedite matters and help along a just cause, it is ever ready. Will the actual "triple" state the amount of rope needed to do the job up to the Queen's taste, and thereby "do himself proud" by furnishing THE TRIBUNE with an item?

NEWS AND NOTES.

The negro exodus continues. A large peach crop is expected this year.

Wheat four inches high in Red River Valley.

Leadville is overrun with dead-beat capitalists.

Jay Gould has got another railroad—the Wabash.

Daily coaches now run between Benton and Helena.

Fourteen hundred bills introduced in Congress in one day.

Horace Austin was confirmed Register of the Fargo land office.

Yankton has four thousand people, according to its own census.

Sioux City restaurants are now advertising strawberries and cream.

The Greeley girls say their income has doubled, and has not been dissipated away.

In the Musselshell valley, last week, the soldiers got away with a half dozen scalps.

Judge Bennett has asked Congress for an assay office at Deadwood. Bismarck wants a mint.

Notice of Special Election.

Notice is hereby given that on the 24th Tuesday, the 10th day of June, A. D. 1879, a special election will be held in the several election precincts of the county of Burleigh, D. T., for the purpose of enabling the legal voters of said county to provide for the building of a court house and jail as provided by an act of the Legislative assembly of the Territory of Dakota, approved Feb. 22d, A. D. 1879, of which the following is a true copy, viz: "AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE BUILDING OF A COURT HOUSE AND JAIL IN THE TERRITORY OF DAKOTA." "Section 1. That the county commissioners of the county of Burleigh, in the Territory of Dakota, be and they are hereby authorized to issue bonds for the purpose of building a court house and jail, approved February 22d, 1879, with the original now on file in this office, and that the same is a correct transcript therefrom in testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the Territory of Dakota, at Yankton, this 21st day of April, 1879. ## MANDAN NEWS.

There is a shoe shop in town.
The mosquitoes don't bite hard yet.
Ice three cents a pound in Mandan.
Dr. Foster is doing a lively business.
Mr. Bellows, Sr., has gone to St. Paul.
There are some houses for rent and sale.
Frank J. Mead is putting in a big potato patch on his claim.
P. B. Winston, the contractor, has returned from Minneapolis.
A barber-shop came over yesterday, and a string of lumber wagons.
Thirteen liquor licenses have been issued in Mandan. No church, however.
Col. Jones, of Bismarck, has gone out on the line with contractor Preston.
Gen. Rosser, the indomitable, was out on line yesterday, punching up the engineers.
Eastern gentlemen who have taken lots for speculation, will find good buildings on them.
Mrs. Sweet, landlady of the Hedquarters Hotel, Mandan, has arrived with her sweet little boy.
Mylon Harmon is plowing up the west end of town, just as if it had never been laid out in blocks and streets.
The original contractors have a hundred teams at work on a big cut. They find it fine scraping. Don't have to put the plow in.
Mr. Keating has erected a two-story building two lots west of Northwestern Hotel. Adjoining this enterprise, B. L. Winston will open a drug store.
It is claimed that the sub-contractors on the extension are getting more supplies than they can use. Hence sales in Mandan below the lowest possible prices of legitimate dealers. The contractors get a free freight rate on the Northern Pacific. See how it is done?
The jumpers in Mandan have about the best lots in town. A jumper moved his tent on a lot already sold by the company in the evening, and the next morning he sold his claim for one hundred dollars to another jumper, who now has a good building on the lot.

LIFE IN A BOTTLE.

The Most Valuable Medical Discovery Known to the World--No more use for Quinine, Calomel or Mineral Poisons--Life for the Blood, Strength for the Nerves, and Health for All.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE PUBLIC.

Believing that by cleansing the blood and building up the constitution was the only true way of banishing disease and being troubled with weakness of the lungs, catarrh, very much broken down in constitution, &c., and after trying the best physicians and paying out my money for many kinds of medicines advertised without finding a permanent cure, I began doctoring myself, using medicines made from roots and herbs. I fortunately discovered a water-purifier, Bitters or Blood Cleanser, the first bottle of which gave me new life and vigor, and in time effected a permanent cure. I was free from catarrh, my lungs became strong and sound, being able to stand the most severe cold and exposure, and I have gained over thirty pounds in weight. Feeling confident that I had made a wonderful discovery in medicine, I prepared a quantity of the Root Bitters, and was in the habit of giving them away to sick friends and neighbors. I found the medicine effected the most wonderful cures of all diseases caused from humors or scrofula in the blood. Impotence, Bad Stomach, Kidney Disease, Torpid Liver, &c., &c. The news of my discovery in this way spread from one person to another until I found myself called upon to supply patients with medicine for some time, and was induced to establish a laboratory for compounding and bottling the Root Bitters in large quantities, and I now devote all my time to this business.

I was at first backward in presenting either myself or discovery in this way to the public, not being a patent medicine man and with small capital, but I am getting bravely over that. Since I first advertised this medicine I have been crowded with orders from druggists and country dealers, and the hundreds of letters I have received from persons cured, prove the fact that no remedy ever did so much good in so short a time and had so much success as the Root Bitters. In fact, I am convinced that they will soon take the lead of all other medicines in use. Nearly one hundred retail druggists, right here at home in Cleveland, now sell Root Bitters, some of whom have already sold over one thousand bottles.

Root Bitters are strictly a medicinal preparation, such as was used in the good old days of our forefathers, when people were cured by some simple root or plant, and when calomel and other poisons of the mineral kingdom were unknown. They act strongly on the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels regular, build up the nervous system. They penetrate every part of the body, searching out every nerve, bone and tissue from the head to the feet, cleansing and strengthening the fountain spring of life, hence they must reach all diseases by purification and nourishment.

No matter what your feelings or symptoms are, what the disease or ailment is, use Root Bitters. Don't wait until you are sick, but if you only feel bad or miserable, use the Bitters at once. It may save your life. Thousands of persons in all parts of the country are already using ROOT BITTERS. They have saved many lives who were about to die, and have permanently cured many old chronic cases of Catarrh, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, and Skin Diseases, where all other treatments had failed. Are you troubled with sick headache, costiveness, dizziness, weakness, bad taste in the mouth, nervousness, and broken down in constitution? You will be cured if you take ROOT BITTERS. Have you had any ailment on your face or skin? Nothing will give you such good health, strength, and beauty as ROOT BITTERS.

I know that jealous physicians will cry bawling because my discovery cures so many of their patients, but I care not. It is now my duty and determination to place my ROOT BITTERS as fast as possible within the reach of all those suffering throughout the world. Sold by wholesale and retail druggists and country merchants, or sent by express on receipt of price, $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles $5.00. For certificates of wonderful cures, see my large circular around each bottle of medicine. Read and judge for yourself.

Ask your druggist or merchant for FRAZIER'S ROOT BITTERS, the great Blood Cleanser, and take no substitute he may recommend because he makes a larger profit.

AT THE GARDEN-GATE.

They lingered at the garden gate—
The moon was full above,
He took her darling hand in his,
The trembling little dove,
And pressed it to his fervent lips
And softly told his love.

About her waist he placed his arms;
He called her all his own;
His heart, he said, it ever beat
For her, and her alone;
And he was happier than a King
Upon a golden throne.

"Come weal come woe," he ardent tones
This youth continued he,
"As is the needle to the pole,
So I will constant be;
No power on earth shall tear thee from me,
Away, I swear, from me!"

From out the casement window peeped
A grizzly, night-capped head;
A grizzly voice yawned, "You, Susan Jane
Come in and go to bed!"
And that was all—it was enough—
The young man wildly fled.

SCARLET FEVER.

Some Facts as to its Origin.

The prevalence of scarlet fever in New York induced the World to interview Dr. Fordyce Barker concerning the disease. The following is the result:

"It was first described by Sydenham in the seventeenth century," said Prof. Barker, "as a distinct disease."

"Are there great differences in the severity of such epidemics?"

"Very great differences, some epidemics being mild and some attended with severe and dangerous cases. But there are always mild cases during the most severe epidemics."

"What are the causes of scarlet fever?"

"The specific cause is infection by a specific poison which is communicated by direct contact either with the exhalation from the lungs of patients, with their skin, or by means of clothing or various substances with which the patients have come in contact. Scarlet fever is said to have been communicated by milk, or even by a letter. Taylor, an eminent English writer, reports the beginning of one epidemic as being in the family of a milkman who delivered milk to twelve families. Of these families six had scarlet fever as a consequence. A certain individual predisposition must exist, as it is frequently found that one child in a family may take the disease, while others of the children who have frequently been exposed in the same degree do not get it."

"Are individuals who have had the disease in a mild form more liable to the second attack?"

"I should say not. On the contrary, those who have a constitutional predilection to the disease are more liable to a second attack. Ordinarily one attack secures immunity from a second, but there are many exceptions to this. It is very rare that patients die from a second attack. In fact not more than three or four cases of this kind have been reported in medical literature."

"How long does the poison retain its activity in clothing, furniture, rooms, etc.?"

"This is very uncertain. There is conclusive evidence that it has been retained in clothing sometimes for months."

"How soon is the disease developed after infection?"

"Trousseau reports a case in which the disease was manifested in twenty-four hours after exposure, and other cases are reported; but usually the period of development is from three to ten or twelve days after exposure. This is probably due to the difference in the susceptibility of the patients."

"At what period of the disease, and how long, is it infectious?"

"It is infectious throughout its whole course. It is believed to be most intensely so during the period of disquamation, or when the skin is peeling off; but so long as there is evidence of disturbance of the system from the localization of the poison in any organ it is not safe to assume that the disease is not communicable."

"What is the comparative susceptibility and danger from the disease at different ages?"

"The most susceptible period of life is from 1 to 15 years. Murchison, a very high authority, states from the statistics of nearly 150,000 cases that about 24 per cent of deaths from scarlet fever are under 5 years, and nearly 90 per cent under 10 years, 95 per cent under 15 years, and only 1 per cent over 25 years. Scarlet fever is very rare in young infants. Only one-ninth of all the deaths are under 1 year, and one-fifteenth between 1 and 2 years."

"How can scarlet fever be prevented and alleviated?"

"To prevent scarlet fever complete isolation of the patients is absolutely essential, as well as the prevention of all contact with those in attendance on the diseased persons. It is essential also that the house should be thoroughly ventilated, so that the poison which may escape may be as diluted as possible. All clothing should be thoroughly disinfected, and even the soiled linen of the sick should not be mingled with that of the other members of the household. The relief of the patients pertains to the medical treatment. After the disease is recovered from the sick-room should be thoroughly disinfected, as well as the bedding, the furniture, the carpets, and even the walls. It is found that dry heat to the point of 212 degrees, kept up for some hours, effectually destroys the poison; and this, perhaps, is as good a method as any of disinfecting the bedding of those who cannot afford to have it destroyed."

"Does the term scarlatina mean a mild form of scarlet fever?"

"No; the two terms are precisely identical."

SPINNER and his autograph say they will never leave Florida.

How a Big Estate Was Divided by Lot.

Mention was made recently of the lottery scheme for the partition of lands between heirs, and it was supposed that the division of the Bailey estate was made in this way for the first time in this State. It appears, however, that one of the largest estates in Missouri was partitioned in 1863-4, under the direction of Mr. Britton A. Hill, counselor for the estate of Peter Lindell, the real estate whereof was valued at about $6,000,000. There were ten heirs, each one being entitled to one-tenth of the whole estate. By virtue of a contract executed for that purpose between the heirs, the city and country lots, comprising the whole estate, were accurately surveyed, numbered and platted by W. H. Cozzens, Esq., and each lot was appraised by Commissioners Charles K. Dickson, James T. Swearingen and Charles H. Peck. They then divided the lots into ten equal shares, and each share was bound with its plats and streets and descriptive calls. On the day of the allotment in 1864, the heirs met in the unfinished room in the second story at the southeast corner of the first Lindell Hotel. The ten numbers of the shares were written on the respective shares from one to ten by the counselor, the ten numbers were written on ten square pieces of paper and placed in a hat; the names of the ten heirs were written on ten other square pieces of paper and placed in another hat. Neither one of the heirs knew the contents of either one of the bound volumes containing the several shares. When all was ready, a crippled boy beggar, passing on Washington avenue, was called in, blindfolded under protest, and directed to draw one paper from each hat, thus designating the name of the heir and the number of the share, and to continue until the drawing of lots was completed. The blindfolded boy was released, and bright tears glistened in his eyes as ten golden half-eagles were dropped into his hand, and he was told that he had completed the division of the great Lindell estate to the satisfaction of all the heirs then present.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Story, of the Chicago Times.

Personally Mr. Storey is a more amiable and pleasant man than would be believed, to judge from his paper. He entertains very hospitably at his home, and is very mild and courteous in his manners. The present Mrs. Storey was married to the veteran editor about four years ago. She was a young widow and noted for the exceeding beauty of her face and figure. Mr. Storey was deeply fascinated with her, and rumors say he had considerable difficulty in winning her. At the wedding he gave his bride many handsome presents, the most valuable of which was a half interest in the Times. He is deeply devoted to her and lavishes money upon her with an unstinted hand. Last year he took her to Europe, where he remained several months. While there she purchased a number of elegant dresses, which were brought back to Chicago. For making up these dresses Mr. Storey paid over $3,000. He is ambitious to have his wife the best-dressed woman in Chicago, and it is said he paid $500 to secure a guarantee that one of her dresses should not be duplicated for any lady on any account.—Fort Wayne Sentinel.

Brave Girls.

On Monday last two men called at the residence of Mr. Louis Henne, residing about seven miles north of this city, and asked for something to eat, stating that they were on their way to Springfield, where they were promised work in the rolling mills. There were none of the family at home at the time, except the twin daughters of Mr. Henne, Lucy and Annie, aged about 13 years, but they prepared a meal, of which the men partook, "behaving and conversing with the ladies as gentlemanly as any one," as it was expressed by our informant, until they had finished the eating. Then they began to indulge in language that alarmed the young ladies, finally culminating in a proposition to "go through the house and see what and who was in it," accompanied by a threat of murder the young ladies if they refused to accompany them in the search. Instead of complying with their demand, however, Miss Lucy stepped into another room, and, seizing a double-barreled shotgun, pointed it at the two chaps and told them to leave, an order which they were not slow to obey, one of them leaving behind his hat.—Springfield (Ill.) Journal.

Earth Eating.

In different parts of the world there are people who eat earth; among them are some of the natives of Java, who eat a red kind of earth as a luxury. This earth, which is soft and smooth to the touch, has been analyzed by a German chemist, who finds it very rich in iron, with a small quantity of potassa and soda. Some tribes eat earth to stay the pangs of hunger by filling their stomachs, and because at times they can get nothing better; but the people in Java eat their earth, baked in thin cakes, as an agreeable variety in their general diet. The cakes, when slightly moistened, are rich and unctuous, and the enjoyment in eating is supposed to consist in the sensation produced by a fatty substance. It is a curious fact in the history of human habits.

THE family physician was congratulating the lady of the house on the good health of her 6-year-old son, who, she said, had not had an ache or pain for a year. The youth spoke to his father afterward, saying: "Ma is mistaken about that; I had a hard pain last summer, after she whipped me."—Rome Sentinel.

HOUSEHOLD ECONOMY.

MOUNTAIN CAKE.—Two cups of sugar, one cup of butter, the whites of four eggs, one teaspoonful of soda, two teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar, one pound of raisins, a pinch of salt.

TEA STAINS.—Tea stains should be wet in equal parts of alcohol and ammonia, and then washed in tepid soap-suds. If the spots be firmly fixed, expose them to the fumes of burning sulphur.

POLISHING FLOORS.—Some persons will persist in scrubbing and scouring polished floors, which is both silly and injurious. They should be swept with a broom covered with flannel, and polished twice a year.

TO CLEAN CLOTHES.—The best way is to steep them in warm water for half an hour, then use borax soap, rubbing it freely on the most soiled parts, finally washing well with very hot water. Afterward rinse in cold water.

CORN-STARCH CAKE.—One cup of butter, two cups of sugar, two cups of flour, two cups of corn-starch, four eggs, one cup of milk, one teaspoonful of soda, and two teaspoonfuls of cream of tartar, pinch of salt flavor to taste.

CEMENT FOR SEALING BOTTLES.—Mix three parts of resin, one of caustic soda, and five of water; this composition is then mixed with half its weight of plaster of paris. The compound sets in three-quarters of an hour, adheres strongly, is not permeable like plaster used alone, and is attacked only slightly by warm water.

TO CURE A HAM.—One ounce of salt-peter, one ounce of black pepper, ground, and one ounce of juniper berries, bruised, one pound of common salt, two pounds of brown sugar; mix all this together, and put on your ham; rub and trim it every day for a month, then hang it up in a chimney where wood is burned.

TO CLEANSE GLASS GLOBES.—If the globes on a gas fixture are much stained on the outside by smoke, soak them in tolerably hot water in which a little washing soda has been dissolved. Then put a teaspoonful of powdered ammonia in a pan of lukewarm water, and with a hard brush scrub the globes until the smoke stains disappear. Rinse in clean cold water. They will be as white as if new.

CHICKEN PIE.—Take two chickens weighing about two pounds each; cut in pieces the size you wish to serve; put them in water enough to cover them, add one table-spoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of white pepper; let them cook slowly until tender—that should be about one hour—then remove them to a plate and take out the largest bones—such as drumsticks and neck. Make a crust of two cupfuls of chopped beef suet, one of butter, and three of flour—prepared is the best. Line a four-quart earthen pie-dish with two-thirds of the crust, put in the chickens and the liquid they are boiled in, which should be a quart; if not, add cold water enough, one teaspoonful of pulverized sage, and a lump of butter the size of an egg. Let it cook one hour in a moderate oven.

Throat and Lung Diseases.

Physicians say that every kind of cold, bronchitis, diphtheria, sore throat, and pulmonary complaints are remarkably prevalent now. Sensible people ought to reflect that nine-tenths of these troubles arise from preventable causes. Wet feet are probably a first cause of a good many of them. There is no excuse for any one who catches cold from wet feet. Overshoes are cheap, and in this climate they ought to be worn all the time between the 1st of November and the 1st of May. It is never safe to be without them, except in summer. Henry Ward Beecher ascribes his robust health mainly to the wearing of overshoes; and all other men who know how to take care of themselves testify to the same effect. Another cause of throat and lung diseases is insufficient clothing. Girls and women who go "low-necked and short-sleeved" to parties take off their flannels to do so, and when consumption declares itself wonder how they got it. A still more general cause is overheating and bad ventilation indoors. The lungs, parched and poisoned in the house, are in ill condition to breathe cold or moist air out of doors. Carbonic-acid gas puts them in a state of incipient inflammation before they meet the fresh air at all. Attention to these simple dictates of common-sense would prevent, we believe, a large proportion of the dangerous coughs and colds which do not come from constitutional weakness or predisposition; and in the latter class of cases the need of careful watching is greater.—Chicago Tribune.

Indolence.

When young Aime Maillard was at college, the professor of rhetoric gave the class as a subject "A Eulogy of Indolence."

On the given day the compositions were handed in, and the professor, after casting his eye over the papers, remarked:

"M. Maillard, where is your essay? I don't see it among these."

"Didn't I hand it to you? I beg your pardon," said the student, and passed up a neatly-folded package of manuscript.

The professor opened it, turned over the pages, got very red, and exclaimed: "Sirrah, this is a miserable joke. This paper is blank—not a word in eulogy of indolence anywhere on it."

"Oh, I thought that the highest eulogy of indolence I could give," replied the student; "would be not to write anything."—Paris paper.

GINGER SNAPS.

A few straggling mosquitoes in town. Gas at the Sheridan House next week. Hunting parties are becoming numerous. The wheat is up in this vicinity, and is looking fine. The various milliners in the city report a brisk business. The area of the Black Hills country is 6,000 square miles. Bismarck will have the champion baseball club this season. A new ice cream parlor will soon be opened on Third street. Wild ducks are very plentiful up and down the Missouri valley. Gen. J. P. Brownlow, son of the fighting parson, died last Saturday. A Pinetown troupe is said to be on the way to the Hills, via Bismarck. Rev. J. B. Starkey, the M. E. presiding elder of this district, is in town. N. Naivne, of Scotland, was registered at the Sheridan House this week. Mr. Geo. P. Flamery was in Fargo the fore part of this week on business. D. A. Montfort, the St. Paul banker and silver bonanza king of the Hills, is at the Sheridan. Mr. Nettleton, for purely business reasons, has withdrawn from the excellent Glyndon News. Mr. J. C. Cady, the furniture man, on Third street, has his new store fixed up in elegant shape. John Ostland, the livery stable man, has received a fine lot of new driving stock from St. Paul. Geo. B. DeLancaster, of Palmyra, N. Y., passed through this city this week, on his way to Montana. The Marble excursion car is spinning away to the Pacific Slope with a crowd of New England millionaires. Capt. French will pass through here in a few days on leave. The captain came out of his court-martial finely. W. E. Quatters, traveling in the interest of the Meriden Silver Plate Company, Meriden, Conn., canvassed Bismarck this week. Thos. Jones, one of Bismarck's best salesmen, formerly of McLean & Macnider's, is now with Sig Hanauer, the clothier. One window of THE TRIBUNE building was washed yesterday. The balance will undergo the same process when the Missouri river rises. Hon. W. W. McNair, of Minneapolis, the man who could have beaten Washburn for Congress, was in the city on business, Wednesday.

The landing at the river is full of life and animation. Hundreds of loaded wagons and a deck load of passengers are constantly crossing for Mandan.

Mayor Geo. Peoples, the leading hardware man of Bismarck, advises young men to "go East" and get married, and then take Horace Greeley's advice.

Several men are now actively engaged in pumping the Missouri dry at the landing. Bismarck uses considerable water straight. Water works will soon be inevitable.

B. L. Winston, of Virginia, and a brother of P. B. Winston, the contractor, is about to open a drug store in Mandan. He is now in Minneapolis, buying his stock.

Mr. R. B. Thurston, of Chicago, and brother of Wm. Thurston, of this city, arrived last Wednesday, to take the position of head salesman in the store of McLean & Macindes.

Seeding on the other side of the river is now in progress, and the country as far as the eye can extend, west of Mandan is speckled with farmers sowing their grain and planting potatoes.

Col. Donan left last Wednesday for Pine Bluffs, Arkansas, to deliver the annual address before the Editorial Association of that State. While here he wrote some splendid letters, descriptive of Dakota and the Northwest.

The Indian freight, 2,000 tons, will go by the way of Yankton this season, on the Coulson boats, for the various agencies. Non-competitive freight rates via the Northern Pacific are driving away thousands of tons of freight this season.

Col. Rice, of the Fifth Infantry, returned from his Eastern leave on Wednesday. The Colonel has made an additional improvement on his famous trowel bayonet. Rice is one of the men of the army who takes a front rank in spite of routine. He is a genius.

David A. Corey, representing the extensive firm of Steele & Price, Chicago, dealers in baking powder and perfumes, was in the city this week. He has been traveling through Montana and other territories, and is now on his way to the British possessions.

Lieut. Chas. Ingalls, of the 6th Infantry, Fort Lincoln, who has been East as far as New York during the past two weeks, visiting friends, returned Thursday night, looking as happy as ever. He was detailed in charge of prisoners bound for St. Paul.

The new store of Dan Eisenberg, the popular dry goods man, will be the finest in the city. Mr. Eisenberg returned from the East Thursday, where he has been purchasing a complete stock of goods, which will arrive in a few days. Then look for a grand opening.

Capt. Sanger, who was suddenly called East last week by a dispatch announcing the severe sickness of his mother, returned last Monday. He started for his home at Amboy, Ill., immediately after receiving the sad intelligence, but before he could arrive she had crossed the river of death.

Persons who voluntarily place themselves in perilous positions must suffer the consequences. Trains backing down the track toward the river against the wind are liable to take in the unsuspecting traveler and use him roughly. Keep off the track or you are liable to get hurt.

Mr. George Elder has purchased the stock and fixtures of the "Board of Trade" saloon of Joe Pennell, and is continuing the business under the firm name of Elder & Co. Mr. Elder has rented the building now occupied by Dan Eisenberg, and will, as soon as Mr. E. moves into his new store, open one of the finest billiard parlors in the West.

G. W. Farnsworth, travelling for Auerbach, Finch & Culbertson, St. Paul, arrived in this city last week. Mr. Farnsworth, with seven other St. Paul travelling men, spent all winter in Montana, and thoroughly canvassed the Territory. He says they did a good work for the Northern Pacific and Coulson line route to Montana. They sold large bills. It was freely stated in Helena that Murphy, Neel & Co., who shipped this way last year, got a dollar rate per hundred from Chicago to the terminus of the Utah Northern, a distance of over sixteen hundred miles. That's competition that is hard to beat.

Jas. L. Connors.

The Bismarck Opera House last night was crowded on the occasion of the appearance of this eminent artist, who more than fulfilled the expectations which the reputation that preceded him had given him. Mr. Connors is an eloquentist of the highest order, and as a delineator of character is without a peer among those of his class who have preceded him in this city. His rendition of the character represented was graceful and true to life, and his comic sketches were irresistibly mirth provoking. "Jane Ann O'Hovaghan in Search of a Place" was a fancy sketch of Irish comedy which kept the audience in a roar during its recital. Also Mr. Connors' original sketch, "Sitting Bull on a Tear," with "Broken Hearted Jane," "New Church," "Over the Hills to the Poor House." He also has in preparation, "No Irish Wanted Here," and "Who Owned the Clothes Line," also his great act, "Just After the War."

How to be Beautiful.

Many hundred thousand dollars are annually expended by ladies for "artificial" appliances to hide the shrunken and wasted form, or the sallow skin, blotches, or liver spots, which are due to female weaknesses, dyspepsia, torpid liver, and constipation. If a small per cent of this sum were invested in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, ladies would soon really be what they now seem to be. It readily corrects those weaknesses and diseases upon which debility and emaciation depend. It cures dyspepsia by toning up the system, and when used in connection with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant, Purgative Pellets, speedily overcomes all irregularities of the liver and bowels. No "bloom of youth," no "beautifier of the complexion," can impart such permanent beauty of face and form as Dr. Pierce's health-giving Favorite Prescription.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Full Weight ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Many hundred thousand dollars are annually expended by ladies for "artificial" appliances to hide the shrunken and wasted form, or the sallow skin, blotches, or liver spots, which are due to female weaknesses, dyspepsia, torpid liver, and constipation. If a small per cent of this sum were invested in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, ladies would soon really be what they now seem to be. It readily corrects those weaknesses and diseases upon which debility and emaciation depend. It cures dyspepsia by toning up the system, and when used in connection with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant, Purgative Pellets, speedily overcomes all irregularities of the liver and bowels. No "bloom of youth," no "beautifier of the complexion," can impart such permanent beauty of face and form as Dr. Pierce's health-giving Favorite Prescription.
